

Ben and Lucas from Crestline snowboard all winter. But when the snow melts, they're ready for a different kind of thrill.

 Google Maps shows them the way to Disneyland.

 They catch the early Mountain Transit Route 6 downhill to San Bernardino Transit Center. There, they transfer to RTA Route 200  to Anaheim.

The bus drops them less than a five-minute walk from the Magic Kingdom, where they can bobsled the Matterhorn and visit Snow White.
